

Instructions:

1. Print out figurative language sheets
2. Cut along the dotted lines
3. Fold over to make front and back
4. Laminate

"Ben bought big bananas
in Birmingham"

Allusion

A reference to a famous person, place, or event

Alliteration

The repetition of the same initial sound

"As American
as apple pie"

"They had a change of heart"

Onomatopoeia

Alliteration

The repetition of the same
initial sound

"Ben bought big bananas
in Birmingham"

Allusion

A reference to a famous
person, place, or event

"He was lying so much I'm surprised his nose wasn't growing like Pinocchio's"

Hyperbole

An exaggeration
that can't be true

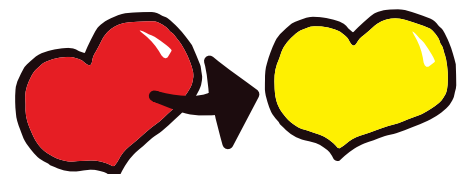

"He was as big as a house"

Idiom

A group of words whose meaning isn't understood from their literal meanings

"They had a change of heart"

Metaphor

A comparison of two unlike things that says one thing is another

“Time is money”

Onomatopoeia

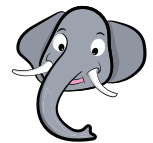

Words whose sounds suggest their meaning

Oxymoron

A phrase whose words contradict each other with opposite meanings

“Tiny elephant”

PERSONIFICATION

GIVING HUMAN QUALITIES TO NONHUMAN THINGS

“The book was so popular, it flew off the shelves”

Simile

A comparison of two unlike things using like or as

“As American as apple pie”

