Fellowes Business Update

Fellowes supports the Australian and State Government's unprecedented action to protect the community's safety and wellbeing against COVID-19.

Fellowes has proactively taken all necessary steps to oblige Government directives and COVID-19 related best practice to ensure the health and safety of its employees and contributing to broad based community efforts to curb COVID-19 transmission. This includes remote working wherever possible, enforcement of social distancing protocols and comprehensive workplace sanitisation and hygiene related policies. This diligent approach extends to all interactions with its business partners and consumers.

Fellowes has remained operational throughout the crisis and intends to remain so unless Government direction mandates an operational shutdown.

During this time please direct all Customer Service enquiries via email:
